SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

JASON GALANIS, et al.,

Defendants.

No. 16-CR-371 (RA)

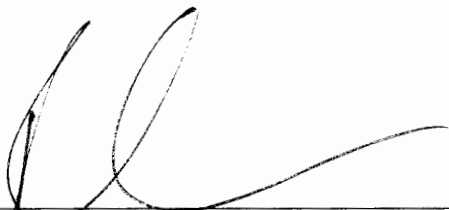

ORDER

RONNIE ABRAMS, United States District Judge:

The Court is in receipt of the attached letter from the general counsel of Renasant Bank, which has apparently received a subpoena calling for one of its employees to testify at the trial in this matter. Any party wishing to quash a subpoena must do so in compliance with the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

SO ORDERED.

Dear Court,

This is Kevin Smith with the general counsel's office of Renasant Bank headquartered in Tupelo, Mississippi. We received a subpoena for trial testimony in the above captioned criminal matter for one of our employees who lives/works in Birmingham, Alabama. Clearly, this runs afoul of the 100 mile limit for non-party witnesses found in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45. I write to ask if there is any way to avoid the expense of hiring a New York licensed attorney to file a motion to quash the subpoena for trial attendance by our Alabama employee for a New York trial. Thanks for any assistance.

Kevin Smith
